FYI - good news finally. Wow - a 2 hour meeting after 2 weeks wait was required by the planner for final sign-off. The WTC BID is indebted to the City Council Office CD 11 and new planning management Craig Weber and Kevin Keller for their indispensable assistance. Appreciation is also due to Matt Hayden's thoughtful professional guidance. Thank you all.

Team,

After the final throws of CDO review (read 2 hour mtg), we obtained the clearance yesterday. Many thanks to all, especially Robert and Raul who helped on last minute calls to "dot i's and cross t's" for the planner. It is done.

I still need to deal with the landscape clearance, which I will do today/tomorrow. This shouldn't be a problem but I will keep you posted.

I will then return the plans/sheets to Robert for his use with final plan check.

Regards,
